WOMEN & GENDER STUDIES MINOR

Co-Director: Johanna Fisher, Adjunct Professor
Co-Director: Tanya Loughead, PhD, Professor

The Women & Gender Studies Minor provides an integrated approach to understanding the social, political, and cultural constructions of gender that shape the experiences of women and men. The curriculum offers a solid foundation in critically thinking through the relationships of identity and power and in critically examining and judging the oppressions and injustices that surround us. The Minor thus educates students in becoming “women and men with and for others.”

Fr. Pedro Arrupe, SJ, famously proclaimed that Jesuit education should aim to be “education for justice” and that students should become “able to perceive the serious injustices which are building around the world of men and women in a network of domination, oppression and abuses” that “stifle freedom.” The Women & Gender Studies Minor takes Fr. Arrupe’s call for an education for justice as one of the key features of its mission. Women & Gender Studies courses prepare students for meaningful careers — certainly but more importantly prepare students for engaging in ethical and just relationships with everyone.

The Women & Gender Studies Minor is an excellent preparation for public-service careers, and is especially useful in any field where understanding diversity is a requirement — though certainly understanding diversity is important in every field and walk of life. Additionally, the minor prepares students for graduate study in social work, law, business and human resources, counseling, and many other fields. The Women & Gender Studies Minor can usually be combined with other majors in order for students to pursue their goals. Please check with your advisors, especially the Women & Gender Studies Co-Directors, to see how either the minor works with your intended academic status and goals. MINOR

The Women & Gender Studies courses emphasize how gender roles are created and how they impact what we know and how we act in the world. Students are encouraged to explore the complexities of our gendered world in a structured series of courses. Learning objectives for the Women & Gender Studies Minor focus on gender, justice and oppression, power, and cultural diversity.

LEARNING GOALS & OBJECTIVES

Learning Goal 1

Students will be original thinkers who can re-envision how gender roles interact with social structures, time, race or ethnicity.

Students will:
- Objective A: Distinguish the difference between sex and gender;
• Objective B: Interpret the ways social structures (such as religion and social class) impact women and men’s lives;

• Objective C: Explain how historical context interacts with gender roles;

• Objective D: Examine how race or ethnicity interacts with gender roles;

• Objective E: Analyze how socially-constructed gender norms influence power relationships experienced by individuals.

Learning Goal 2

Students will be problem solvers who investigate culture and society using the lens of gender and social justice.

Students will:

• Objective A: Evaluate human interactions using gender as a framework;

• Objective B: Apply gender-based analysis to offer solutions to issues in society and culture.

WST 201 Introduction to Women and Gender Studies 3 Credits

This course places the experiences of women and men at the center of our study by introducing basic concepts and perspectives in the field of women and gender studies. We further focus on the ways in which gender interacts with race, class, sexual orientation, and ethnicity.

Fulfills College Core: Field 5 (Social Sciences)
