FRC 417 The French and Francophone World at Work 3 Credits
This course will embark on a study of French and francophone working society at large. The practical approach will lead students to develop a series of written and oral artifacts, designed to provide a realistic experience with working in a French context. Interviews, cover letters, CVs, goals and objectives, and negotiation will be practiced. In parallel, the course, which will be conducted entirely in French, will discuss the French and francophone work force in its wide-ranging social and economic facets. The major questions of work time, innovation, legislation, life-work balance, as well as integration in global competition, will be envisioned.
Offered: Fall, every 3 years

FRC 427 Identities and Globalization 3 Credits
In the broader context of a globalized world, this course will examine the integration and resistance of identities through a discussion of the institutions of post-war France and the technological developments, and evolution of political structures, with a particular emphasis on current events and contemporary media. This class is entirely conducted in French.

Prerequisite: minimum grade of C in each of FRC 323, FRC 324, & FRC 332.

FRC 454 Heritages Francophones 3 Credits
Examination of the Francophone cultures in the United States and Canada. The communities explored include descendants of Acadians in the St. John Valley of Maine and the maritime provinces of Canada; the Cajun populations of Louisiana; the Haitian community in Miami; and the immigrants from Africa, Asia, and Europe.
Prerequisites: minimum grade of C in each of FRC 323, FRC 324, & FRC 332.
FRC 490 French Capstone Project
1 Credit
Graduating majors will collect a portfolio of their work during their time at Canisius. Students will summarize their experience of studying Spanish through a 5-10 page reflective paper (written in the target language) discussing the progress they have made in skills (reading, writing, speaking, listening) and knowledge (culture). Students will also summarize how their knowledge of Spanish will impact their futures (graduate school, year of service, career, community, personal life). In this reflection, students should also synthesize the three areas of extracurricular experience and their impact on their skills and cultural knowledge: A) Study Abroad; B) Service Learning, Internships/Volunteer sites; C) Cultural Activities. Students should also critique the program, and suggest improvements to curriculum. The final project will conclude with an oral presentation of the above, with Q&A, for peers and faculty. This course will be required of all graduating majors entering AY 17/18 (graduation 2021 and later). Current students are strongly encouraged to register.
Offered: every fall and spring semester.

FRC 499 Independent Study
3 Credits
Independent study requires permission of the chair and associate dean. Independent studies require an application and approval by the associate dean.
