

ACADEMIC POLICIES

Academic Policy Resource

Students with questions regarding academic policies or those seeking advice on handling situations related to grade grievances or violations of the code of academic integrity may wish to speak to someone outside the normal decision and appeal processes. Students are welcome to contact an advisor in the Griff Center for Student Success or the associate vice president for academic affairs for an explanation of academic policies or general assistance in these matters.

- Academic Forgiveness Policy (<https://catalog.canisius.edu/undergraduate/academics/academic-policies/academic-forgiveness-policy/>)
- Academic Standing (<https://catalog.canisius.edu/undergraduate/academics/academic-policies/academic-standing/>)
- Code of Academic Integrity (<https://catalog.canisius.edu/undergraduate/academics/academic-policies/code-academic-integrity/>)
- Grades and Policies (<https://catalog.canisius.edu/undergraduate/academics/academic-policies/grades/>)
- Quality Points and GPA (<https://catalog.canisius.edu/undergraduate/academics/academic-policies/quality-points-gpa/>)
- Religious Holidays (<https://catalog.canisius.edu/undergraduate/academics/academic-policies/religious-holidays/>)
- Undergraduates Taking Graduate Courses (<https://catalog.canisius.edu/policy-undergraduates-taking-graduate-courses/>)