

CATHOLIC STUDIES - CTH

CTH 400 Research in Catholic Studies

3 Credits

Independent study major capstone course in which a student does independent research and a project (such as a long research paper) on a person or topic of interest within the Catholic Studies minor under the supervision of a faculty advisor. The course may be waived in lieu of an internship or an agreement to complete such a project in conjunction with another relevant course's requirements.

Prerequisites: RST 101 & approval by the Catholic studies program director.

Offered: fall & spring.
