

MIDDLE CHILDHOOD EDUCATION - EMC

EMC 352 Human Growth and Social Development: Middle Childhood

3 Credits

Major concepts, principles, theories and research related to the intellectual, emotional, physical, social and moral development of young adolescents.

Offered: fall.

EMC 391 Cognition, Learning, Assessment and Diagnostic Teaching: Middle Childhood

3 Credits

Concepts, standards and research related to middle level curriculum development stressing the importance of a curriculum that is relevant, challenging, integrative and exploratory. Interdisciplinary middle level curriculum standards and models will be introduced in addition to assessment strategies that promote the continuous intellectual, social and physical development of all young adolescents.

Offered: spring only.