EDUCATOR PREPARATION

Programs in the Field of Education

Canisius College offers graduate educator preparation programs for candidates seeking their first certification and those looking to add additional academic credentials. The Initial Certification programs are taken by candidates seeking their first license. The Professional Certification programs are taken by candidates who earned initial certification in an undergraduate program. Those seeking to pursue counseling or educational leadership would take one of the programs listed under Other School Professional Programs.

Graduate Initial Preparation Programs

Graduate Professional Certification Programs

Graduate Other School Professional Programs

Educational Leadership (http://catalog.canisius.edu/archive/2018-2019/graduate/school-education-human-services/educational-leadership-supervision)

Dual Degree Programs