ABOUT CANISIUS

About Canisius
Consistently ranked among the top regional institutions in the Northeast, Canisius is the premier private university in Western New York. Founded in 1870 by German Jesuits, Canisius is named for St. Peter Canisius, a renowned Dutch educator and one of the original members of the Society of Jesus.

A masters-level, comprehensive university, Canisius promotes the Jesuit principles of academic excellence, service and leadership through a broad range of learning experiences and a distinct core curriculum that is grounded in the liberal arts.

Buffalo has been home to Canisius for more than 150 years. Located in the Hamlin Park district, a historic and conveniently-located residential neighborhood in north-central Buffalo, the college campus spans 72 acres and is comprised of 15 academic and administrative buildings, three athletic complexes and five residence halls.

Our Mission
Canisius College, a Catholic and Jesuit university, offers outstanding undergraduate, graduate and professional programs distinguished by transformative learning experiences that engage students in the classroom and beyond. We foster in our students a commitment to excellence, service and leadership in a global society.

At the Core of Our Mission
Catholic & Jesuit
Canisius is an open, welcoming university where our Catholic, Jesuit mission and identity are vitally present and operative. It is rooted in the Catholic intellectual tradition’s unity of knowledge and the dialogue of faith and reason. Founded by the Society of Jesus as a manifestation of its charism, Canisius espouses the Jesuit principles of human excellence, care for the whole person, social justice, and interreligious dialogue. Jesuit spirituality calls us to seek God in all things and Jesuit education aims to form students who become men and women for and with others.

Transformative Learning & Student Engagement
Steeped in Jesuit ideals, our undergraduate and graduate academic programs are distinguished by academic excellence, student-faculty interaction, and a variety of experiential learning opportunities that engage students and transform mind and spirit. Our undergraduate core curriculum enriches students’ academic pursuits and delivers a strong foundation in liberal arts, critical thinking, and diversity. Graduate and professional programs promote the application of theory to practice.

Service & Leadership
Benefiting from academically-rich, values-based experiences in their interactions with faculty, staff, and community members, students develop their abilities to lead and inspire others. At Canisius, students practice these leadership skills in the classroom and through co-curricular activities in ways that animate our Jesuit values to serve others and benefit our world.

Our Values
Canisius College is committed to the following values that emerge from our Catholic, Jesuit mission to guide all of our decisions and actions:

- Cura personalis, care and respect for the whole person, and a holistic approach to education
- A dedication to the pursuit of magis, excellence, service, and innovation
- Principled leadership and personal accountability
- An individual and institutional responsibility to work for social justice and transform suffering and injustice in the world
- A deep respect for the natural world, and a commitment to its responsible stewardship.

Our Vision
Canisius will be the leading educational choice for those who seek innovative learning opportunities rooted in our Jesuit mission and values.

Canisius seeks to:

- Be a vibrant and progressive university committed above all else to academic excellence and the authentic search for truth.
- Embrace its Catholic, Jesuit identity as its defining characteristic and be committed to enhancing and enriching that identity.
- Recruit faculty with outstanding credentials and foster academic excellence through extraordinary teaching and scholarship.
- Embrace its urban roots in Buffalo, New York and become more engaged with the world around it by addressing issues and challenges in the neighborhood, city, region, nation, and world.
- Engage alumni and friends and draw them into a deeper lifelong relationship with the university.
- Be committed to quality and continuous improvement in everything that we do.

Academic Programs
Canisius has been preparing students for meaningful careers and lives for more than 150 years. We do it through exceptional teaching, extraordinary opportunities for hands-on learning, and through a supportive community that is invested in students and their goals. Canisius is highly accredited and recognized for excellence in teaching, curriculum and outcomes in each of its three schools: College of Arts & Sciences (https://www.canisius.edu/academics/our-schools/college-arts-sciences/), School of Education &
Canisius offers students undergraduate curricula leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts (BA), Bachelor of Science (BS) and Associate of Arts (AA) in more than 100 majors (https://catalog.canisius.edu/undergraduate/majors/), minors (https://catalog.canisius.edu/undergraduate/minors/), and special programs (https://catalog.canisius.edu/undergraduate/special-programs/) to create a path that is uniquely suited to their interests and career goals. Graduate students can select from 35 outstanding master’s and certificate programs (https://catalog.canisius.edu/graduate/programs/), including an array of degrees offered fully online. (https://www.canisius.edu/online/courses-programs/) Canisius College has been approved to participate in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (https://nc-sara.org/).

Faculty

Regardless of the program of study, students will find experienced faculty who are committed to providing a challenging yet supportive environment to help them reach their goals. The college seeks faculty members known to be creative and energetic teachers who also seek to engage their students in their research and scholarship. With modest class size the norm (the student-faculty ratio is 11:1), interaction between students and faculty makes for an easy and natural learning and working environment, in which professors take a personal interest in their students. Moreover, 98 percent of faculty at Canisius hold a PhD or other terminal degree.

Accreditation

Canisius College is accredited by numerous national organizations. These accreditations serve as testament to the excellent quality of a Canisius education. Canisius is an accredited member of the Middle States Commission on Higher Education. The college’s Middle States accreditation was reaffirmed in 2015.

All of the college’s programs are registered by the Regents of the University of the State of New York through the State Education Department.

The Richard J. Wehle School of Business is the largest private institution in Western New York accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International). The college has held this distinction of excellence since 1977. AACSB is earned by the best business schools in the world, and only five percent of business schools worldwide meet the rigorous standards of AACSB International Accreditation.

The chemistry major is accredited by the American Chemical Society.

Full accreditation of all educator preparation programs in the School of Education and Human Services was obtained through the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) in 2017. Canisius is currently pursuing accreditation of its educator preparation programs by the Association for Advancing Quality in Educator Preparation (AAQEP).

Pursuant to §52.21 of the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education, the educator preparation programs offered by Canisius College are considered to be continuously accredited for purposes of meeting the New York State requirement that all such programs maintain continuous accreditation.

The Graduate Programs in Counseling are accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs.

The ARC-PA has granted Accreditation-Provisional status to the Canisius College Physician Assistant Studies Program sponsored by Canisius College. Accreditation-Provisional is an accreditation status granted when the plans and resource allocation, if fully implemented as planned, of a proposed program that has not yet enrolled students appear to demonstrate the program’s ability to meet the ARC-PA Standards or when a program holding Accreditation-Provisional status appears to demonstrate continued progress in complying with the Standards as it prepares for the graduation of the first class (cohort) of students. Accreditation-Provisional does not ensure any subsequent accreditation status. It is limited to no more than five years from matriculation of the first class. The program’s accreditation history can be viewed on the ARC-PA website at http://www.arc-pa.org/accreditation-history-canisius-college/.

Graduate Programs

Advancing your education is one of the surest ways to put your career on the fast track. Canisius College graduate programs earn the highest accreditations, offer expert faculty and an extensive network of successful alumni who can help open doors in Western New York and beyond.

Graduate students can select from 35 outstanding master’s and certificate programs (https://www.canisius.edu/academics/programs/?degree_type=28), including an array of degrees offered fully online (https://www.canisius.edu/online/courses-programs/).

Online Programs

The same admissions standards apply for online students as for all others; admissions requirements are listed along with the description of each graduate program. Students in the online programs (https://www.canisius.edu/online/courses-programs/) are held to the same academic and administrative policies as the on-campus students. These include withdrawal from courses/college, refund policy, academic misconduct, and grade grievance. All administrative and financial transactions with the college can be completed online.

The Griff Center for Student Success

The Griff Center for Student Success (https://www.canisius.edu/student-experience/student-support-services/griff-center/) provides comprehensive programs, services, and resources to support student academic and career success and a transformative learning experience grounded in our Catholic, Jesuit mission. The Griff Center is a hub for academic advisement, career advisement (https://www.canisius.edu/student-experience/student-support-services/griff-center/career-services/), accessibility support (https://www.canisius.edu/student-experience/student-support-services/griff-center/student-accessibility-services/), and has staff ready to assist students to become successful lifelong learners.

Campus Ministry

The Office of Campus Ministry (https://www.canisius.edu/faith-and-service/campus-ministry/) is responsible for the spiritual life on campus and espouses the Jesuit principles of human excellence, care for the whole person and social justice. And while Canisius is a school steeped in Catholic, Jesuit tradition, we welcome, respect and encourage interreligious dialogue from people of all faith traditions.

Through the Campus Ministry Office, students explore the depths of the human perspective through the lens of Ignatian and Catholic spirituality, as well as other religious backgrounds. This is accomplished through retreats (https://www.canisius.edu/faith-and-service/campus-ministry/retreats/), service immersion trips (https://www.canisius.edu/faith-and-service/campus-ministry/service-immersion-experiences/) and community service (https://www.canisius.edu/faith-and-service/campus-ministry/local-community-service/). Campus Ministry frequently collaborates with the New Buffalo Institute (https://www.canisius.edu/about-canisius/mission-vision-strategic-plan/new-buffalo-institute/) to support the needs and service initiatives in the city of Buffalo.
About Canisius

The facility has two full basketball courts, three volleyball courts and an indoor batting cage.

Directly adjacent to the KAC is the Demske Sports Complex, a multi-use, all-purpose, all-weather artificial turf field that is home to the Golden Griffin soccer, lacrosse, baseball and softball teams.
