PRE-LAW

The Frank G. Raichle Pre-Law Center
Pre-Law Committee: Robert Klump, Esq., Director, Frank G. Raichle Pre-Law Center; Patricia Erickson, Professor Emerita of Criminal Justice; Peter J. Galie, Professor Emeritus of Political Science; and Helen Ferraro-Zaffram, Esq., Board Member, Desmond Law Society

The Frank G. Raichle Pre-Law Center assists students who wish to enter the legal profession by offering counseling and advisement regarding law schools and the Law School Admissions Test and by providing several partial pre-law scholarship awards to juniors and seniors. Internship and other opportunities are enhanced by the work of the college’s Pre-Law Advisory Council.

The Raichle Center also sponsors an annual lecture series on problems of law and American society. Raichle Lectures have included six justices of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Students interested in law are encouraged to contact the Director or another member of the pre-law committee at their earliest opportunity and are encouraged to join the pre-law fraternity, Phi Alpha Delta.

Pre-law students may wish to consider joining the college’s Mock Trial team and enrolling by instructor’s permission in the one credit Mock Trial course (LEG 101).

Canisius College does not offer a Pre-Law Major, rather we offer a program that prepares students to succeed both in law school and in the legal profession. Students wishing to choose law as a career may major in any field or fields as undergraduates. They should bear in mind, however, that their aim must be the attainment of a broad liberal education. Specifically, they should attain considerable skill in language, knowledge of human institutions and values and an ability to reason critically. The committee therefore recommends that students wishing to choose law as a career include in their undergraduate programs of study the following:

1. Courses which develop skills of accurate comprehension and precise expression in language.
2. Courses in which knowledge of human institutions can be attained, with special reference to American constitutional law and history.
3. Courses which develop abilities in logic and appreciation of ethical and political values.

For a more detailed description of the program, faculty, facilities, academic and co-curricular opportunities please visit the Pre-law webpage (https://www.canisius.edu/academics/programs/pre-law/).
