MILITARY SCIENCE PROGRAM (ROTC)

Full-Time Faculty: Lieutenant Colonel Chad Gosney; Captain Scott Harris; Captain Kevin Ryan; Captain Joseph Aumendo; CPT Ian Merritt; Master Sergeant Kwasi Baah; Sergeant First Class Steven Langridge; Rebecca Sparacino, Lieutenant Colonel (Retired); Andrew G. Ciepiela, Staff Sergeant (Retired); and Sylvia Thomas.

The Military Leadership & Science (MLS) Program augments the college learning experience. The cornerstone of the MLS program is the development of leaders. Individual courses support the identification, assessment, and leadership development of young men and women. The goal of the MLS Program is to train confident and competent leaders of character for commissioning as officers in the United States Army, Army Reserve or Army National Guard. Every student taking MLS will learn superior organizational, leadership and managerial skills that will prepare them to lead in public service, business, military, and community organizations. This program is open to students of all majors and there is no requirement for previous military service or experience.

The traditional MLS program is four years: a two-year Basic Course (six credit hours/year), for which no military obligation is incurred, and a two-year Advanced Course (six credit hours/year), plus a US Military History Course (3 credits); for which there is a military obligation.

The Basic Course refers to the first and second year of the MLS curriculum. It is designed as a classroom and lab course that stresses the fundamentals of leadership. A freshman student would enroll in MLS 101 and MLS 111 in the fall and MLS 102 and MLS 112 in the spring. A sophomore would enroll in MLS 201 and MLS 211 in the fall and MLS 202 and MLS 212 in the spring. These courses are designed for students who want to improve their leadership. Instructors develop their students’ physical, mental and critical thinking skills through team building and collective hands-on problem solving case studies. A number of popular and challenging extra-curricular activities are available for students who take these courses. Students may take up to twelve Basic Course credits without obligation. The basic course sequence is required for all students that want to qualify for entry into the Advanced Course. MLS 210-Basic Camp is held at Fort Knox, KY, between the summer of the student’s sophomore and junior year. Basic Camp is a mandatory component for students who have not completed the 100- and 200-levelMLS courses/labs. Students, with prior military service may also receive placement credit directly into the Advanced Course with approval from the Department Chair.

The Advanced Course is comprised of MLS 301 & MLS 311, MLS 302 & MLS 312, MLS 401 & MLS 411, MLS 402 & MLS 412, and MLS 480. Upon completion of this sequence and successful completion of Advanced Camp students are commissioned as Second Lieutenants in the Army, Army National Guard, or Army Reserve. Based on the students’ area of study, Military Science 300- and 400- level courses continue to bear free elective credit that may be used toward a student’s 120 hours needed to graduate.

For more information students should contact the Military Science Department located on the first floor in the Health Science Building.

Military Science Summer Credit

During the summer, students may receive 3 credits for completing MLS 210 at Ft. Knox, KY. CIET is a 29-day training program that is mandatory for all students seeking a Commission. Students must meet all contracting criteria to attend CIET; attendance may occur between either the freshman and sophomore year or sophomore and junior year. For more information on this program, contact the Military Science Department.

Juniors can receive credit for MLS 310 at Ft. Knox, KY during the summer between their junior and senior year. This is a demanding 30-day course designed to increase critical thinking and enhance leadership skills and is mandatory for all Advanced Course ROTC cadets.

Further details are available through the Canisius College Department of Military Science website (https://www.canisius.edu/academics/programs/rotc-canisius/).
