EDE 100 Human Growth and Development - Birth through Childhood

Introduces multiple dimensions of development including influence of family, culture and society. Examines physical, cognitive, emotional and behavioral theories and emphasizes education's role in promoting wellness. Fulfills College Core: Field 5 (Social Sciences)

Offered: every fall & spring.

EDE 390 Cognition and Learning - Birth through Childhood

Investigates theories of learning and current brain research. Integrates emotion and motivation and the neurological basis for learning. Analyzes formal and informal procedures for reporting student progress.

Offered: every fall.